79	VINCENT CINCOTTA ON OPERA  THE BEL CANTO PERIOD OF OPERA Lucia de Lammermore by Gaetano Donizetti a three act opera composed in 1835 with a libretto by Salvatore Cammarano (1801-1852) based on Sir Walter Scott's novel The Bride of Lammermoor of 1819. By the early 1800s, the Baroque and Neo-classical period of Italian opera began to incorporate the new aesthetics of early Romanticism in both style of music and choice of libretto. This early moment of Romanticism in opera is known as the Bel Canto period. Vincenzo Bellini, Gioacchino Rossini and Gaetano Donizetti were its major exponents. Bel Canto features long, sustained vocal lines to show off the beauty of the voice by a series of exquisite melodies embellished with vocal coloratura techniques. A classical example of Romantic literature is Sir Walter Scott's novel The Bride of Lammermoor. The bloody feud between the Scottish families of Ravenswood and Lammermoor ends with a series of tragic deaths. After introductory notes, we will view a special DVD with English sub-titles of the performance given at the Sydney Opera House with Dame Joan Sutherland as Lucia, Robin Donald as Normanno and Malcolm Donnelly as Enrico. 83	HISTORY Presenter: Lloyd Pitcher IRELAND 10 000 BC – 1642 Who were the Irish? We look at features of Ireland before the Celts arrived in 700 BC, the Scotti in 367 AD, St Patrick 432 AD, the Vikings 795 AD, Normans in 1169 and Robert the Bruce 1315. The Black Death devastated Ireland in 1348. King Henry VIII of England authorised the English to arrive in Ireland and they set about disestablishing the Catholic monasteries and monastic movements. Irish rebellions occurred in 1579 to 1583 and later in Ulster. And where were the leprechauns in all this political activity in Ireland?	Sessions: 4 Cost: $17 Venue: CWA HALL Berry St Date: 11/05 Time: 10:00 - 12:00
	IRELAND 1643-1800 There was much turmoil in Ireland and the world during this period. War in Ireland by Oliver Cromwell 1649-1650 led to its invasion by William III of Orange in 1689 and the Battle of the Boyne in 1690. International events such as the Seven Years War 1756-1763, the American Revolution 1775-1783 and the French Revolution of 1789 spread ideas of liberty and republicanism throughout Ireland. Theobald Wolf Tone led the Society of United Irishmen Catholics, Presbyterians and Protestants – in a massive rebellion in 1798 against British rule in Ireland. The resulting Act of Union in 1800 dissolved the Irish parliament and Britain directly administered Ireland. This presentation examines the demands for political reform in Ireland and how the British government dealt with them.	Date: 25/05 Time: 10:00 - 12:00
	IRELAND 1800-1914 From 1801 to 1922, Ireland was governed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom in London and administered through the Lord Lieutenant in Dublin Castle in Ireland. Daniel O’Connell led Irish demands for emancipation from control by Britain. The Tithe War from 1831 to 1836 saw sporadic violence against the British. From 1845 to 1849 a potato famine led to the death and/or emigration of fifty percent of Ireland’s population by 1900. Demands for Irish land ownership and home rule continued to grow and by 1914, Ireland was ready to explode into extreme violence.	Date: 8/06 Time: 10:00 - 12:00
	IRELAND 1914-1983 On Easter Sunday 1916, Irish nationalist insurgents rose up against the British in Dublin. Although defeated, demands for Home Rule of Ireland continued and resulted in a civil war from 1919-1923. From this war emerged Northern Ireland and the Irish Free State [Eire]. Throughout the 1920s and 1930s, secular violence continued. After World War II (1939-1945), Ireland and Northern Ireland developed their separate economies and societies. The Irish Republican Army wanted a politically united Ireland and ramped up their violent activities during ‘The Troubles’ 1970-1983. The making of two Irelands was never far from the shadow of a gun.	Date: 22/06 Time: 10:00 - 12:00
